SPECIAL SCHOOL BOARD MEETING
MARCH 24, 2020
BRUCE HIGH SCHOOL IMC

A special meeting of the School Board of the School District of Bruce was held on March 24, 2020 at the Bruce School IMC. The meeting was called to order at 6:34 p.m. by Board President Andrew Anderson by conference call. Members present were Anderson, Golat, Kempen, Schweitzer-Hopkins, Trott, Robers and Vohs. Anderson, Kempen and Schweitzer-Hopkins were present via teleconference. Also present were administrators Sturzl, and Wessman. Villiard was absent.

Mr. Anderson read a statement of proper noticing of the meeting.

The board discussed interviews for the 6-12 principal position. Mr. Sturzl said in light of the school being closed we should conduct virtual interviews. Candidates will be notified and a schedule determined, no action taken.

The board discussed the Emergency Operations Plan. Mr. Sturzl updated and said that staff is doing an outstanding job delivering instruction to students. Custodians are working, bus drivers and kitchen staff are getting meals delivered. Staff is trying to get internet for Exeland students. Bruce Telephone is providing free internet service to students who do not have access to the internet. Everyone is trying to do the best they can for students. All things are subject to change pending announcements by public health officials.

A Vohs/Kempen motion o approve waiving minimum hours of instruction requirements for 2019/2020 school year carried.

A Trott/Golat motion to adjourn at 7:30 p.m. carried
